

THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION

1688

Ares Palencia
Carla Romera
Anastasia Savchenko
Màrian Borrego

WHAT WAS “THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION”?

England

King James II

- Rebellion vs. King James II
- England 1688
- James II knocked down

WHAT WAS “THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION”?

Oliver Cromwell

- Turbulent rule
- Merchants - Lords
- Monarchy restored

Charles II

WHAT WAS “THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION”?

King James II

Catholic and with absolutist tendencies

→ No supported to restore the Monarchy.

→ New agreement

→ King and Country Protestant

→ Led the Parliament rule

John Locke

William of Orange

REASONS

→ Main cause: religion

→ Mary II was encouraged by the nobility

→ Parliamentary Monarchy

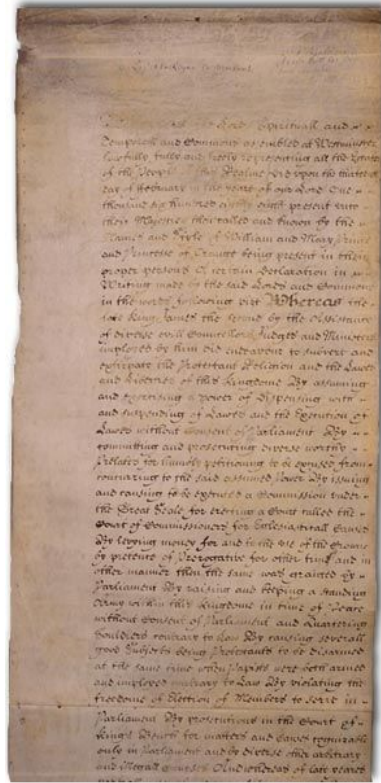

Mary II

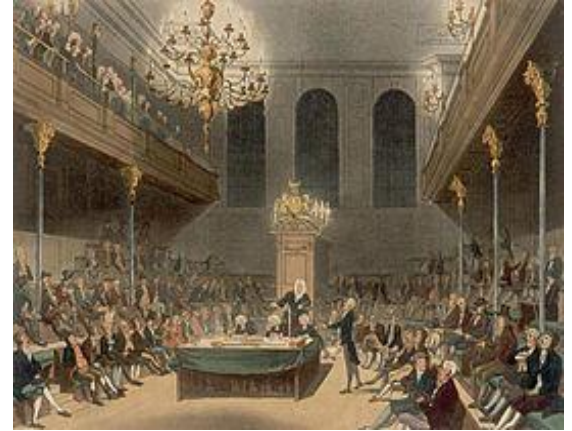

William of Orange

CONSEQUENCES

- Constitutional Monarchy
- Freedom of religion
- Equal rights to all citizens
- “Bill of rights” approval
- Parliamentary, Military Expense and Tax Control
- Censorship was banned and Press Freedom was guaranteed

Bill of rights of 1689

House of Commons

CONCLUSION

- Change of the royal dynasty
- Peaceful and successful
- Brought a Parliamentary Monarchy in England

King James II

William of Orange

Mary II and William of Orange

THE END

1688

Ares Palencia
Carla Romera
Anastasia Savchenko
Màrian Borrego